Attention

According to recent census reports, the fastest growing segment of the U.S. population is people over age 75. More than 83% of American seniors are homeowners.

If you are a senior, or if you have senior parents, and are facing the difficult decision of whether to sell your family home, the task may seem daunting.

At the H. Pearce Company, we understand your needs and concerns. That is why we have created a special program just for Seniors and their families.

Our Senior Specialists are trained in-house by Jean Cherni, the founder of Senior Living Solutions, a retirement advisory service. Jean works in partnership with the H. Pearce Company to provide high level consultations and services to seniors. We will help to address your concerns at every stage of the decision making process.

Senior Solutions

• Should you remain in the same neighborhood, move in with your adult children, move to a senior apartment complex or a full service continuing care community?

• Should you relocate?

• What will you do with a lifetime's accumulation of "things"?

• Who can you rely on for good solid advice?

• Pearce Senior Specialists are trained to help you with all of these decisions and to keep in constant contact. In addition, throughout your move, you will have an on-staff, non-selling counselor, who will ensure that all of your needs are met. If you wish, our counselors may also refer you to financial planners, accountants, or attorneys who specialize in estate planning, family trusts and other areas of concern.

Working with a Realtor® that has specialized training, is familiar with various types of housing, and is fully aware of the senior services available in your communities can be invaluable to your peace of mind.

Even if you are thinking about moving out of Connecticut, our counselors can coordinate your move. While our Senior Services Specialists are assisting you with the sale of your home in Connecticut, our Relocation Services Division will make sure that you receive everything you require in the new location, attending to all of the details of your move from start to finish!

So, if you are a senior who is considering a move, no matter what stage of the decision-making process, feel free to contact us for advice and assistance. A Pearce Senior Specialist will be at your side... every step of the way.
